REBEL PRIDE

Former Ole Miss student-athletes can be found across the world proving successful in many areas of business, athletics, medicine, law and numerous other fields. Those who have donned the Cardinal and Navy for the Rebels include WNBA coaches Carol Ross and Jennifer Gillom, former WNBA player and former Ole Miss assistant coach Armintie Price Herrington, district pharmacy supervisor for CVS Kimsey O'Neal, and Rebel great Peggie Gillom-Granderson, who gives back to Ole Miss by working with the schools' Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

"Ole Miss means more to me than just a University. Ole Miss is my family and will always be. Our women's basketball program has a tradition of excellence. Coach Van Chancellor from day one instilled the pride of the Ole Miss Lady Rebels into us, and that tradition has become a mainstay through today's time. I'm proud to be an Ole Miss Lady Rebel and always will be. I love my Ole Miss."

- Kimsey O'Neal 1987 SEC Freshman of the Year

"Playing at Ole Miss gave me the aggressiveness, work ethic and 'never give up attitude' that prepared me for the WNBA. Coming from Ole Miss, I knew nothing could stand in my way."

- Armintie Price Herrington No. 3 Draft Pick, 2007 WNBA Draft

- Named ninth head coach in Ole Miss history on April 4, 2018
- Brought Ole Miss to its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in 2023, for its 19th in school history
- Knocked off No. 1 Stanford on its home court in the second round to advance to the 2023 Sweet 16, Ole Miss' first since 2007
- Guided Ole Miss to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 15 seasons in 2022, winning 10 SEC games for the second time in program history
- Led Ole Miss to an impressive turnaorund in 2020-21, which ended with a WNIT runner-up finish, the first SEC quarterfinal appearance since 2010, three top-25 wins and the first winning season since 2016-17
 Coached two time First-Team All-SEC member
- Shakira Austin in 2020-22 and SEC Freshman of the Year Madison Scott in 2020-21
- Signed SEC's No. 1 ranked recruiting class in 2019 (No. 13 nationally)

DUMBA HONORS

Five WNBA players with Ole Miss ties have claimed WNBA honors. Shakira Austin garnered acclaim in her first season in the league, earning All-Rookie team honors. The 2012 season was good to the Rebels, with former Ole Miss head coach Lin Dunn and her Indiana Fever team claiming the 2012 WNBA Title. In the same year, Carol Ross earned WNBA Coach of the Year. Former head coach Van Chancellor has had the most impressive WNBA career. The coach of the four-time WNBA Champion, Houston Comets, Chancellor was named WNBA Coach of the Year three times. Armintie Price Herrington, the 2007 WNBA Rookie of the Year, also picked up several WNBA accolades during her WNBA career.

Top Right: Armintie Price Herrington was the third pick in the 2007 WNBA Draft and went on to win Rookie of the Year honors.

Bottom: Shakira Austin made a splash her in her first year in the league earning All-Rookie accolades, while Lin Dunn led the Indiana Fever to the 2012 WNBA title.

USA BASKETBALL

Ole Miss has extensive ties to USA Basketball, Jennifer Gillom has a storied history with the national team as a member of the 1988 gold medal team in Seoul and an assistant coach on the 2012 gold medal team in London. Former head coach Van Chancellor was the head coach of the 2004 Team USA squad that won gold in Athens, while Peggie Gillom was an assistant coach with the 2000 gold medal team in Sydney. Outside of the Olympics, Ole Miss has been represented in other international competition as well. Carol Ross was an assistant coach on the 2005 U19 national team that won gold at the World Championships. Ole Miss has also had a handful play in the Pan-American Games, including Valencia McFarland in 2011.

DUMBA REBELS

The Ole Miss women's basketball team has a long and storied WNBA tradition with six players being drafted. Jennifer Gillom was the first Rebel to reach the WNBA, selected by the Phoenix Mercury in the 1997 Initial Player Allocation, earning First-Team WNBA honors in 1999 and an All-Star selection in 2000 before concluding her career with the LA Sparks in 2003. She then moved to the bench, serving as head coach of the LA Sparks and Minnesota Lynx and serving as an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics and Connecticut Sun. She currently works as a consultant for the Mercury.

Armintie Price Herrington was the third overall pick in the 2007 WNBA Draft and went on to earn 2007 WNBA Rookie of the Year accolades with the Chicago Sky. Price Herrington helped the Atlanta Dream to three WNBA Final appearances (2010, 2011 and 2013) and spent time with the Los Angeles Sparks and Washington Mystics before retiring after the 2015 season.

Shakira Austin tied Price as the highest draft pick in program history, as the third overall pick in the 2022 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics. Austin went on to earn a spot on the All-Rookie team and led the Mystics in rebounding and blocks

Yolanda Moore spent four seasons in the WNBA with the Houston Comets, where she was coached by her former Ole Miss coach Van Chancellor. Moore claimed back-to-back WNBA titles in 1997 and 1998.

Saundra Jackson was drafted in the third round of the 2000 WNBA draft and spent time with the Orlando Miracle, while Bianca Thomas was drafted by the LA Sparks in 2010. Most recently, Rebel standout Valencia McFarland spent time in the Seattle Storm training camp.

Ole Miss has several ties to the WNBA sidelines as well. Rebel player and head coach Carol Ross served as the head coach of the LA Sparks, and former Ole Miss coach Lin Dunn recently retired from her position of head coach of the Indiana Fever. Van Chancellor served as head coach of the Houston Comets from 1997-2006, winning four WNBA titles and earning WNBA Coach of the Year three times.

WNBA REBELS

MARCH MADNESS

Ole Miss Women's Basketball has a storied tradition at the national tournament with 19 trips to the Big Dance. In their 19 appearances, the Rebels have reached five Elite Eights and 11 Sweet Sixteens, winning 20 NCAA Tournament games along the way.

Ole Miss is one of just 35 teams nationally that have made 19 or more NCAA Tournament appearances. Six Rebels have been named to the NCAA All-Regional teams, including Jennifer Gillom who was the Midwest Regional MVP in 1986.

The Rebels won the 1992 regular-season SEC title with a perfect 11-0 record and closed the season with a 29-3 record and an NCAA Elite Eight berth.

The 1991-92 Ole Miss squad was one of the finest in school history. Head coach Van Chancellor led the Rebels to a perfect 11-0 conference record, giving Ole Miss its first SEC title. The team reached the NCAA Elite Eight that year with a school-record 29-3 record.

THE SANDY AND JOHN BLACK PAVILION AT OLE MISS

The centerpiece of the Forward Together campaign is the state-of-the-art $96.5-million Pavilion at Ole Miss. On July 31, 2014, ground was broken on the 225,000-square feet arena that officially opened its doors on January 7, 2016 with the Rebel men's basketball team's victory over Alabama.

Designed by AECOM and built by BL Harbert, The Pavilion boasts a capacity of 9,500 fans and includes a number of first-class amenities, including courtside and baseline seating for students, three premium club areas for fans and more than 1,700 premium seats all within an intimate seating bowl. The men's and women's locker rooms measure almost 1,500 square feet, while the facility also houses two visiting team locker rooms, officials' locker rooms, a volleyball locker room and green room space.

Ole Miss worked with Daktronics to design, manufacture and install what was the largest center-hung video display board in college sports at the time with nearly 2,400 square feet of LED. The center-hung configuration consists of 13 video displays for a total of more than 3.6 million LEDs. It includes four main video displays, two undermount video displays, four corner displays and three 360-degree rings.

On January 28, 2017, the hardwood that the Rebels play on was officially named Craddock Court. Due to the generosity of Ben and David Craddock, the floor was named in honor of the entire Craddock family.

The Pavilion also includes a five-story parking garage with 800 spaces that services the entire campus community.

The placement of The Pavilion allows Ole Miss to further enhance its athletics complex - better connecting athletics to the heart of the best campus in higher education. This centralized location creates an impressive "front door" for Rebel Athletics and a destination point not only on a gameday but every day of the week.

TUOHY BASKETBALL CENTER

Ole Miss Basketball's chances of becoming a prominent program in the national hoops landscape took a big jump when Ole Miss opened the $13 million, 51,000-square-foot facility for men's and women's basketball in January 2010.

The Tuohy Basketball Center includes four distinct spaces - public, staff (coaches), team and individual practice courts for both men's and women's teams.

Spaces for the public include an attractive main rotunda/lobby to receive visitors and a multimedia/entertainment meeting room that can be used for Media Days as well as for video presentations and team functions.

Coaches' offices, a conference room, a copy center, and staff locker and dressing facilities complete the suites. The head coaches' offices provide direct access to and view of their respective practice courts.

FACILITY HIGHLIGHTS

- Opened in January of 2010
- $13 million construction project
- Facility was renamed the Tuohy Basketball Center in June 2014 after contributions from former men's basketball standout Sean Tuohy and his wife Leigh Anne.
- 51,000-square-foot facility

- VALD ForceDeck forceplate system

HEAD COACH YOLETT MCPHEE-MCCUIN

Head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin has elevated Ole Miss women's basketball back into the national spotlight throughout her five seasons in Oxford. The 2022-23 campaign generated plenty of noise in leading the Rebels to its 19th NCAA Tournament appearance and shook up the country in advancing to its 11th Sweet 16 in program history.

Cultivating a roster through the use of the transfer portal and with Rebel returners, McPhee-McCuin guided a team with seven newcomers to its second straight NCAA Tournament appearance for the first time since the 2004 & 2005 seasons. Reaching 20-wins also proved to hit another milestone for Ole Miss, reaching the 20-win mark in back-to-back seasons for the only time since 1993-94 & 1994-95.

After reaching an 11-2 mark through its non-conference slate, Ole Miss hit the ground running at the start of SEC play by rattling off five consecutive victories to begin 5-0. One of these first five wins included the Rebels' first win over Mississippi State in Starkville since 2004. The Rebels kept their momentum rolling against the Bulldogs in Oxford, completing the first regular season sweep over MSU since 2004.

This Rebel squad came together multiple ways in the face of adversity, including engineering the best comeback in program history after facing a 19-point deficit at halftime at Arkansas. Defensively, Ole Miss clamped down on the Razorbacks to erase the Arkansas lead and force overtime. From then on, it was all Ole Miss to complete the comeback and take down Arkansas, 76-73. Not only was it the largest comeback in program history, but the third biggest between two SEC teams and ranks ninth in the NCAA record book.

The wins continued to come, with Ole Miss earning 11 SEC victories to tie a program record and seal its second-straight fourth place finish. The 11 victories were the most for the Rebels since the conference went to the 16-game SEC schedule. Following an appearance in the SEC Tournament Semifinals, the Rebels heard their name called on Selection Sunday as an eight seed to reach the program's 19th NCAA Tournament appearance.

A First-Round dominant, 71-48 victory over No. 8 Gonzaga highlighted by its trademark defense kept the Bulldogs at bay with a program-lowest in points allowed in an NCAA Tournament game. Going up against No. 1 Stanford in the Second-Round, Ole Miss took control of the Cardinal in a game in which they never trailed to knock off the top-seeded host team, 54-49 to reach the Rebels' 11th Sweet 16. The Rebels became the first team since 2009 to halt a No. 1 seed from advancing to the third round.

Development has been a key theme for McPhee-McCuin, by molding transfer Angel Baker into a First Team All-SEC point guard and a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American. In her third year with Madison Scott, the 2021 SEC Freshman of the Year, elevated her game to earn Second Team All-SEC and All Defensive Team honors for 2023.

McPhee-McCuin wrapped up her fourth season in Oxford in 2021-22 with revitalized energy surrounding the Ole Miss women's basketball program, leading the Rebels to their 18th NCAA Tournament appearance and their first in 15 seasons with one of the most tenacious defenses in the country.

The 2021-22 campaign was one to be remembered, as McPhee-McCuin raised the bar with the expectation of the NCAA Tournament or bust from the get-go, Ole Miss rose to the occasion, accomplishing just that. Following a season-opening loss, the Rebels responded by rattling off 13 straight wins for the third-longest winning streak in program history on the way to a 23-win season.

Following its second-ranked win of the season at No. 23 Kentucky and fourth straight in SEC play, the Rebels saw themselves slotted in the AP Poll on Jan. 24 at No. 24 for the program's first ranking in 15 years. Defensively, Ole Miss shattered program records with a season-high 142 blocks and held a record 10 opponents under 50 points, for the most in a single season.

Once SEC play hit, the Rebels did not cool off, picking up 10 conference wins for the second time in Ole Miss history. A 10-6 conference record pushed the Rebels into a fourth-place SEC finish for its best since 1994. With a double bye secured for the SEC Tournament in Nashville, Ole Miss knocked off No. 23 Florida to advance to its ninth semifinal appearance and first since 1993 before ultimately falling to top-seeded South Carolina. Just a little over a week later, jubilation occurred with Ole Miss seeing its name called on Selection Sunday for the first time since 2007 as a seven seed.

Under her tutelage, Shakira Austin earned First Team All-SEC honors for the second straight season, and garnered national acclaim as one of the best centers throughout Division I hoops. Bringing in transfer guard Angel Baker from Wright State proved to be key, as she went on to be named the SEC's Sixth-Woman of the Year, for the first in Ole Miss history.

McPhee-McCuin made history of her own after the 2021-22 campaign, becoming the first woman in Bahamian history to coach at the men's national level serving as an assistant with the Bahamas Men's Senior National Team during World Cup qualifiers.

Ole Miss bounced back from an 0-16 SEC season in 2019-20 to a 15-12 (4-10 SEC) campaign in 2020-21 that saw the Rebels come dangerously close to crashing the Big Dance. The Rebels knocked off three top-25 teams in the span of a month — including a season-sweep of nationally ranked Kentucky and a momentous upset of No. 13 Arkansas in the First Round of the SEC Tournament to mark the first SEC Quarterfinal appearance for Ole Miss since 2010. The Rebels nearly knocked off No. 14 Tennessee in that quarterfinal, which would have marked the first SEC Semifinal appearance since 1993 and likely would have pushed the Rebels into the NCAA Tournament.

The Rebels were on the outside looking in on the Big Dance despite ending the regular season with a NET of 43, five NET top-100 wins, four NET top-50 wins, and a brutal final stretch that included going 4-4 in their last eight games against an average NET of 16.8 (with only two games at home). But Coach Yo and Ole Miss took that chip on their shoulder into the WNIT with a fury, advancing all the way to the championship game after playing superb team basketball -- the furthest postseason run in program history regardless of tournament. Ole Miss fell to a dominant Rice squad in that title game, but that could do little to dampen the spirits of a program with its sights set on even higher bars in the years to come.

Much of the success for the Rebels in 2020-21 came in the form of Honorable Mention All-American and First-Team All-SEC member Shakira Austin, who immediately asserted herself as one of the most feared players in the SEC and the nation after transferring to Ole Miss from Maryland in the offseason. Austin was the first First-Team selection for Ole Miss since 2014-15 and ended up on the Lisa Leslie Top-10 list, but she wasn't alone. Ole Miss' highly-touted top-ranked recruiting class from 2019 lived up to the hype in their first season, with Madison Scott earning SEC Freshman of the Year honors and Snudda Collins being named alongside her on the SEC All-Freshman team.

The swift turnaround is even more impressive when taking stock of where the Rebels were when she took over. Coach Yo took the reigns of a Rebel program her first year in 2018-19 that had just four returners and willed it to outperform all the preseason polls that had picked Ole Miss unanimously to finish last. The Rebels improved their SEC win total by two games from the year before, winning three conference contests — one of which was a thrilling 55-49 win at No. 16 Kentucky on Jan. 13, 2019. The win was the first over a ranked team on the road for Ole Miss since 2011 and the first win in general at UK since 2007.

McPhee-McCuin also mentored graduate transfer Crystal Allen, who in her lone season donning a Rebel jersey became one of the most electrifying players in the SEC. Allen finished the season third in the conference at 18.3 PPG and was named second-team All-SEC — the first Rebel to earn All-SEC honors since 2014-15.

She followed that up by signing the SEC's top-ranked recruiting class in 2019-20, which included two five-star signees and the first McDonald's All-American in Ole Miss women's basketball history in Madison Scott.

Coach Yo was named the Rebels' ninth head coach on April 4, 2018, the first black female head coach in Ole Miss women's basketball history.

"I am extremely humbled and grateful for the opportunity to be the women's basketball coach at the University of Mississippi," McPhee-McCuin said. "Once I stepped on campus, there was no doubt in my mind that Ole Miss had the potential to be a force to be reckoned with -- not only in the SEC but nationally as well."

McPhee-McCuin spent the previous five seasons transforming lacksonville into a perennial power in the Atlantic Sun Conference. During her tenure as head coach, McPhee-McCuin led the Dolphins to a 94-63 record (50-24 in ASUN play) and postseason appearances in each of her last three seasons.

McPhee-McCuin, who has also served as the national team head coach for her native Bahamas, took over a program at Jacksonville that had only won 20 or more games in a season twice in its entire history and proceeded to march the Dolphins to three-straight 20-win campaigns in her final three years.

In 2015-16, McPhee-McCuin and the Dolphins made history, capturing the program's first ASUN Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth with an upset in the conference championship game over two-time defending champion Florida Gulf Coast. The victory snapped FGCU's seven-year, 71-game home streak against ASUN opponents and boosted Jacksonville to a 22-11 record.

McPhee-McCuin's team followed that up with two more 20-win seasons and the first two WNIT appearances in JU history in 2016-17 (23-9, 11-3 ASUN) and 2017-18 (24-9, 12-2) with the final season seeing the Dolphins break the school record for single-season wins. In 2016-17, Jacksonville was the lone ASUN program to receive votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll and earned the first WNIT at-large ever given to an ASUN team.

Prior to her time at Jacksonville, McPhee-McCuin was an assistant at Clemson from 2011-13, where she was recognized as one of the top assistants in the nation by National Women's Basketball Insider. While with the Tigers, McPhee-McCuin solidified her reputation as one of the best recruiters in the country, spearheading the No. 16 class in the nation in her final year at Clemson, which included five McDonalds All-America nominees.

Before her stint at Clemson, McPhee-McCuin was on staff at Pittsburgh for two seasons in 2009 and 2010. She was part of a pair of postseason appearances with the Panthers, who rose to No. 14 in the national rankings and advanced to a Sweet 16.

Her coaching career also includes stops at Portland, Frank Phillips College, and Arkansas-Pine Bluff, where she earned her master's degree in physical education with a perfect 4.0 GPA.

McPhee-McCuin received her bachelor's in business management and administration from Rhode Island in 2004, playing in 56 games over her junior and senior years at URI and helping the Rams advance to the 2003 A-10 title game. She played her first two seasons at Miami-Dade Community College.

In addition to her collegiate coaching duties, McPhee-McCuin has served as the head coach for the Bahamian national team since 2013. Her crowning achievement was the first Caribbean Basketball Confederation title for the Bahamas in 10 years after a 55-51 win over Jamaica to qualify for the 2016 CentroBasket Championship. The success capped a very successful tournament outing with a perfect 5-0 record, and McPhee-McCuin became the first female coach to win a CBC title

McPhee-McCuin was the first Bahamian woman to sign a Division I letter of intent to play basketball, becoming a trailblazer in the process for other aspiring athletes from her home country. She is the first Bahamian woman to coach at a Division I program and was the first black female head coach at Jacksonville.

McPhee-McCuin is also part of two Halls of Fame across both her playing and coaching career. In 2016, she was inducted into the Bahamian Athletic Hall of Fame alongside Buddy Hield (of the NBA's Sacramento Kings) and Jonquel Jones (of the WNBA's Connecticut Sun). In 2013, she was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame and was one of 10 recipients of the Pathfinder Award for their distinguished achievement outside of New England.

An active member of the coaching community, McPhee-McCuin is a member of the "So You Want to be a Coach" program through the WBCA, and she holds membership in the Women of Color Association. In 2013, McPhee-McCuin joined the Center of Coaching Excellence's yearly class.

Throughout her coaching career, McPhee-McCuin has had a large impact in every community in which she has coached. She developed a foundation in the Bahamas called the NoCeilings with Coach Yo, which helps the development of children through education and athletics. Additionally, she was involved in numerous community service projects at her other coaching stops.

In addition to the growth she has facilitated on the court throughout her career, McPhee-McCuin, and her staff have instilled importance in community engagement both through service and via dialogue with fans and supporters.

Coach Yo also emphasizes teaching, developing, and inspiring through character-building and leadership development, as best evidenced by her trademark motto #NoCeilings, which serves as a rallying cry both within the program and to those familiar with her in the basketball community. Her point of emphasis with #NoCeilings is to preach a way of life, especially to young women, about living without limits to what can be achieved both on the court and in life.

Born April 30, 1982, the former Yolett McPhee and her husband, Kelly McCuin, have two daughters: Yasmine and Yuri.

Chris Ayers is entering his sixth season as an assistant coach under Ole Miss women's basketball head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin in 2023-24, and his third as the recruiting coordinator for the program.

"Chris Ayers is one of the best relationship builders in the country," McPhee-McCuin said. "He has grassroots experience and is great with player development, and his communication skills both with players and the community at large are superb. He is a force to reckoned with in this business."

Avers has spearheaded all recruiting efforts throughout his six years at Ole Miss, helping secure the SEC's topranked class in 2019-20 that included the program's first McDonald's All-American and eventual SEC Freshman of the Year (Madison Scott), two five-star prospects (Scott and Jacorriah Bracey), two members of the SEC All-Freshman team (Scott and Snudda Collins) and ESPN's top-ranked transfer in Shakira Austin -- who went on to earn Honorable Mention All-America, First-Team All-SEC twice winner of the 2021 and 2022 Gillom Trophy, and become a top-three WNBA Draft pick.

Ayers is in charge of the Ole Miss point guards, and in 2022-23 that involved guiding the duo of Angel Baker and Myah Taylor. The pair were a key factor in the Rebels reaching its first Sweet 16 since 2007, with Baker being named First Team All-SEC after averaging 14.8 points per game and leading Ole Miss in scoring. Baker also became the second straight Rebel to earn the 2023 Gillom Trophy as the top player in Mississippi. As the conference's active career leader in assists, Myah Taylor finished fourth in the SEC with 3.6 dimes per contest. The list of professionals developed under Ayers continues to grow, with Baker taking her talents to Poland and Taylor to Mexico.

Under his leadership, Ayers mentored Mimi Reid and Valerie Nesbitt, who were both critical in the first winning season at Ole Miss since 2016-17 in 2020-21, with Reid finishing second in the SEC in assists at 4.6 per game (her third straight season in the top-10), and Nesbitt finishing 15th in the league at 3.0 per game.

In his first year in 2018-19 he guided Mimi Reid into becoming the top freshman point guard in the SEC and one of the best in the nation. Reid ended the season with 5.6 points per game and 4.3 assists, the latter of which led the team, ranked sixth in the SEC and first among conference freshmen. For her efforts running the Rebel offense, Reid was named the SEC Freshman of the Week twice. She also stood as the only player in the SEC to record separate games of at least 11 rebounds and 11 assists.

Reid again had a solid season under Ayers' tutelage in 2019-20, finishing the regular season seventh in the SEC in assists with 4.0 per game and eighth in minutes played with 32.6. Reid became a crucial scorer for the Rebels down the stretch, averaging 15.4 points and 4.8 assists in a five-game span in February, including a career-high 21 points at Tennessee.

Ayers was also instrumental in the development of second-team All-SEC honoree Crystal Allen during his first season, who left as one of the best individual scorers in Ole Miss history during her one season with the Rebels. Allen's scoring exploded at Ole Miss, leading the team with 18.4 points per game, the third-best in the SEC in 2018-19. Allen also led the SEC in free throw percentage (.830), helped greatly by a streak of 47 in a row from Jan. 10 to Feb. 3, which was the longest streak in the NCAA at the time.

His track record in the development of point guards has proven to be successful at the next level, with both Allen and Nesbitt taking their talents overseas to play professionally in Europe.

Prior to Ole Miss, Ayers was a graduate manager at Georgia Tech for the 2017-18 season, where he assisted with scouting and player development, in addition to dayto-day duties with the coaching staff. Georgia Tech was coming off a 20-14 season that saw a trip to the third round of the WNIT.

"My family and I are excited to have joined Rebel Nation and the Oxford community," Ayers said. "I'm honored that Coach Yo is giving me the opportunity to be part of her journey and trusting me to help guide Ole Miss Women's Basketball to success."

Ayers has spent most of the last decade cultivating an impressive resume in the high school and AAU ranks before joining the Georgia Tech program last season. Ayers was simultaneously an assistant coach of the Nike Essence AAU team and the assistant coach of the boys varsity team at Godby High School in Tallahassee. Florida, from 2008-17. He then served as the girls varsity assistant coach at Hapeville Charter Career Academy during the 2016-17 season.

Ayers helped coach Essence to a 2012 Nike Silver Division national title, and he took the Breakdown boys AAU team to back-to-back national titles in 2007 and 2008. Ayers was also part of a 2015 state title team at Godby. All told, Ayers has coached more than 100 athletes who went on to play either collegiately, professionally or both.

Ayers graduated from Florida A&M in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. Ayers and his wife, Jasmine, have three children: a daughter, Khierstin, a son, Chris Jr., and a daughter, Alaiya.

Bojan Jankovic enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Rebels in the 2023-24 campaign.

"I am incredibly excited to officially announce the addition of Bojan to our staff. I'd also like to welcome his wife Bojana and children Zuk and Anja to our Oxford community," said McPhee-McCuin. "Coach B brings elite post player development and international recruiting. He also brings Olympic experience and 25 plus years of coaching experience internationally and domestically. At every stop, Bojan's impact has been felt in a positive manner and I look forward to the same with our program."

"I am so excited to join Ole Miss Women's basketball and work for great head coach with amazing vision, coach Yo, and her amazing staff," said Jankovic. "My family and I are happy to be part of Oxford community and I can't wait to start. Go Rebels!"

Under his tutleledge, Jankovic guided the Rebel bigs to shatter the program single-season block record with a total of 174 rejections. Jankovic tutored Madison Scott to become one of the strongest defenders in the SEC, with the junior earning SEC All-Defensive team accolades as well as Second Team All-SEC.

Jankovic came to Oxford after spending three seasons as an assistant coach at Louisiana Tech, and boasts over 25 years of coaching experience. With the Lady Techsters, Jankovic tutored the LA Tech post players, and was instrumental in the squad's 2022 WNIT bid.

In 2021-22, the Lady Techsters utilized a late season push to win the Conference USA West Division championship to earn a berth in the conference tournament finals en route to a 21-12 record.

Under his guidance, Jankovic guided Anna Larr Roberson into a Second-Team Conference USA selection in 2021-22 as she was also selected to the Conference USA All-Tournament team. Roberson posted nine double-doubles, as well as registering the fifth-highest scoring game in LA Tech history with 44 points against Rice.

Prior to his time in Ruston, Jankovic spent four years at Wyoming developing international talent, including two-time Mountain West Sixth Player of the Year Marta Gomez from Spain. The Cowgirls reached the WNIT three times, including an appearance in the WNIT Elite Eight in 2019. Jankovic was key in cultivating talent from across the globe, as ten of the 16 players on the Cowgirls roster were international in his final season in Laramie.

His success in recruiting internationally is due to his ties at the highest levels of international basketball, as Jankovic served as an assistant coach on the Serbian senior national team from 2013 through 2017. At the 2016 Rio Olympics, Jankovic and Serbia shocked fans with an upset of Australia 73-71 in the quarterfinals before eventually falling to Spain in the semifinals. Serbia bounced back with a 70-63 win over France to secure a bronze medal.

Jankovic also spent five seasons at Oral Roberts, where he helped the Golden Eagles to the Southland Conference Championship in 2013. His work with Vicky McIntyre in 2015 lifted her to lead the nation in locks and rebounds per game, where she was later drafted 20th by the Seattle Storm to become the first player in ORU history to be selected in the WNBA draft.

Jankovic held a five-year stint at Centenary College for four seasons, where he was an assistant for three years before taking over the head coaching duties for the 2009-10 season. He assisted at the University of the Ozarks for one year, helping the men's team reach the most conference wins in school history.

Jankovic began his playing career with Radnicki, also playing at Belgrade Basketball club before coming to the United States. He spent his collegiate years at Mount Senario College in Ladysmith, Wisconsin, where he led the team to the National Small College National Championship in 1996. He earned his degree in 2006 from the University of the Ozarks.

Jankovic is joined in Oxford by his wife Bojana and his two children Anja and Vuk.

Jaida Williams is entering her second season as an assistant coach under head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin in 2023-24.

"I am so excited to have Jaida joining our family. Jaida has incredible leadership experience and will make an immediate impact with our program," said McPhee-McCuin. "In making this hire I looked for someone that can help with all aspects of the program. After many conversations Jaida proved to check all of the boxes."

Williams made an immediate impact in her first season in Oxford, overseeing some of the Rebels' best shooters in Marquesha Davis and Snudda Collins. In her first season at Ole Miss, Williams assisted Davis in improving her scoring by a whopping 78 percent to become one of the team's best threats in their first Sweet 16 run since 2007.

Prior to Ole Miss, Williams was at the helm of the Coastal Carolina program for nine years from 2013-22. In her nine seasons in Conway, Williams elevated and changed the landscape of the Chanticleer program. Williams led Coastal to a program record 25 victories in the 2019-20 season and was named the Sun Belt Conference's Coach of the Year.

In her tenure, Coastal Carolina went 129-127 (.504) overall, and 69-90 in conference play as Williams guided the Chanticleers through the transition from the Big South to the Sun Belt.

Under her tutelage, DJ Williams was selected the 2020 Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and first-team All-Conference, while Naheria Hamilton was tabbed as the Sun Belt's Defensive Player of the Year.

The Chanticleers also reached its first postseason appearance in program history under Williams, after accepting an invitation to play in the 2019 Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI). Coastal also reached the quarterfinals of the Sun Belt Championship for the second straight season, as Williams oversaw the Sun Belt's leading scorer for the second straight year in a row.

In 2017-18, Williams led the Chants to a 17-14 overall record, reaching double-digit wins in Sun Belt play to finish seventh in the league, while also winning its first Sun Belt Conference Tournament game. Under Williams coaching, Jas Adams was the Sun Belt's leading scorer averaging over 18 points per game as she became the program's first student-athlete to earn All-Sun Belt first team honors.

As the Chants completed their inaugural season in the Sun Belt, Coastal went 13-16 overall, including an 8-10 record in conference play to finish eighth. Coastal wrapped up the regular season strong by winning four of their final five games. Senior point guard Ced Gibson became the first student-athlete in program history to be voted All-Sun Belt after placing in the top 10 in the conference in seven statistical categories.

The 2015-16 season saw the Chants finish with a 12-18 record for the second consecutive year, including a 7-13 mark against Big South Opponents. The 2015-16 season included several notable wins, including Coastal's first-ever victory over Clemson on Nov. 15. The Chants also snapped a 45-game losing streak to Liberty with a 58-51 win over the Flames on Feb. 20 in Lynchburg, Va.

Her first two years in Conway included the best mark in four seasons, with a 15-16 record during the 2013-14 season, while 10 conference victories marked the most since the 1993-94 campaign.

Prior to her time at Coastal, Williams spent the 2012-13 season at Wake Forest as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator where she built a top-20 recruiting class.

Before Winston Sale, Williams spent time with Ganon Baker Basketball, where she traveled the country working with WNBA players as a skills development coordinator as skills development coordinator.

Williams spent three seasons at UCSB from 2008-11, where she played an instrumental role in helping the Gauchos win two Big West regular-season and tournament titles. UCSB made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and received a WNIT berth in 2011.

Williams joined the Gaucho staff after two successful seasons as an assistant at the University of South Florida from 2006-08, where she assisted with recruiting, game preparation, and player development. During her stint at USF, she successfully recruited a top 16 class and made a pair of WNIT appearances.

Before joining the staff at South Florida, Williams served as the director of operations at the University of Iowa for the 2005-06 season.

Williams is an active member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated.

As a player, Williams was a standout for Cal Poly Pomona from 2002-05, assisting the Broncos to a 23-7 record as a senior and a spot in the NCAA Division II Tournament Regional Final. Williams graduated from Cal Poly Pomona in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in journalism.

Patrick Henry is in his second season as the associate athletics director for women's basketball under Ole Miss head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin in 2023-24, and was promoted to assistant coach entering his second season in Oxford.

Henry assists in oversight of the daily organizational aspects of the Ole Miss women's program's operations and provides assistance to the coaching staff.

"I am elated to have Patrick join our program," McPhee-McCuin said, "He is a great addition for Ole Miss women's basketball because of his roles in various capacities with several championship collegiate programs and professional organizations." McPhee-McCuin added, "Along with multiple championship experiences, his relationships forged in the sports industry and corporate world as a consultant will be a positive impact on our staff as we continue to elevate our program."

Recognized as one of the best strategic minds in basketball and sports consulting industry, Henry comes to Ole Miss with over two decades of experience in athletics. He has worked at the High School, Junior College, Division III, Division II and Division I levels as an assistant coach, at the professional level as an advanced scout and a sports industry and executive coaching consultant since 2015.

"I am truly humbled to be a part of the women's basketball program at Ole Miss and the tremendous foundation of success Coach Yo has built," Henry said, "I look forward to the opportunity to add value and help execute the championship vision she has created as we continue to make history at one of premier programs in the country and show that there are 'No Ceilings' on what can be accomplished here at the University of Mississippi and the Southeastern Conference."

Henry's most recent coaching experience was a two-year run at Miami (Ohio), where he specialized in the development of the RedHawk perimeter players, in addition to duties in practice and in game strategy. For his efforts, he was twice recognized as one of the top Non-BCS/Power Five Assistant Coaches in women's basketball (2013-15) and was tabbed Mid-American Conference Women's Basketball Assistant Coach of the Year by recruiting services in 2014. In his two years at Miami, he identified and recruited two first year starters as freshmen, including a First Team All-Conference and a Conference Freshmen of the year selection, as well as the program's all-time leading scorer.

During the 2012-13 season Henry served as the video coordinator at Indiana. While with the Hoosiers, he helped handle film exchange, filming of practice and assisted in video break down for scouting. He was also responsible for creating presentations and materials used in recruiting.

Prior to his time at Indiana, Henry was an assistant at Texas State for six seasons (2005-11). The last three seasons, he was the associate head coach. While with the Bobcats, he served as the team's recruiting coordinator, helped develop offensive and defensive schemes and was the principle architect of an offense that finished ninth in the country in scoring in 2008.

During his career, Henry also worked on men's staffs at Mercer (2002-05), Georgia Southern (2001-02), Frank Phillips College (2000-01) and Florida Southern (1999-00). He has also served as a member of the support staff at Ohio (1995-97). In total, he has worked for six different coaches who have been recognized as National Coach of the Year. He has worked for three different coaches who have been head coaches at the professional level, including two recognized as WNBA Coach of the Year. In addition to working at multiple levels of the coaching profession, Henry has served as a part of four separate coaching staffs that have either won or shared a conference championship (Sunshine State, Southern, Atlantic Sun and Southland).

Henry, a native of Warner Robins, Georgia, is a 1998 graduate of Ohio University, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Interpersonal Communication with a related area of Sports Science. He earned his Master of Education in Holistic Education from Mercer University in 2005.

Former Rebel Erika Sisk rejoined the Ole Miss program for the 2022-23 season, joining Yolett McPhee-McCuin's staff as a graduate manager. After her first season, McPhee-McCuin elevated Sisk to serve as the special assistant to the head coach and an assistant coach.

In her first season on staff, Sisk was an integral part of assisting the Rebels in game preparation between film work and her basketball skill-set on scout team.

A standout Rebel from 2014-17, Sisk appeared in 94 games, starting in 92. The Oxford native, averaged 8.4 points, 3.2 rebounds as well as 3.2 assists per game throughout her three seasons. Her 254 career steals rank fifth all-time in Ole Miss history, grabbing 201 as a Rebel. Sisk became Ole Miss' 27th 1,000 point scorer in 2016, as she averaged 8.1 points per game as a senior.

Following her time in a Rebel jersey, Sisk headed overseas playing one season in Greece for Team Petrolina AEK. In her lone season in 2018, Sisk led the Cyprus League in scoring with an average of 22.8 points per game as Petrolina reached the second round of the playoffs.

Sisk then returned to Mississippi to run Sisk Select Basketball, traveling around the country participating in AAU tournaments while providing mentorship and developing players to their full potential.

Sisk graduated from Ole Miss in 2016 with a degree in general studies with minors in recreation administration, education and legal studies and earned a certificate in intercollegiate athletic administration in 2022.

Michonné Gamble-Rivers is in her sixth season at Ole Miss and her second as the assistant athletic director for player engagement entering the 2023-24 season.

Gamble-Rivers previously worked with McPhee-McCuin at Jacksonville as the Director of Player Development during her final two seasons at JU in 2017 and 2018.

"Michonné is a perfect match for the young ladies that are present on our team, as well as the ones that will join the program in the future," McPhee-McCuin said. "She is passionate about the growth of young women, and she is a total team player. One of my goals is to equip our student-athletes with the skill and tools for them to be successful, and I am confident that Michonné will help with this."

Prior to her time at Jacksonville, she worked six years at City Neighbors High School in Baltimore, Maryland. While there, she served as a student advisor and the Director of Special Projects. She was also tasked with designing and updating the school's website as a technical support specialist.

Gamble-Rivers also worked at The Met School, where she tutored and led educational efforts for underrepresented students in the Providence, Rhode Island, area.

She received bachelor's degrees in human development & family studies and business administration from the University of Rhode Island in 2008, and she completed her master's in leadership & learning from Jacksonville in 2018.

WOLF Coordinator of Basketball Operations • 6th Season Ramapo College (2009) Chelsea Wolf is in her sixth season working — A pative of Pine Brook New Jerse

Chelsea Wolf is in her sixth season working under Ole Miss head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin in 2023-24, and her fourth as the coordinator of basketball operations after being promoted following two seasons as the assistant director of on-campus recruiting.

Wolf helps oversee the day-to-day operations of the program, including travel, equipment, the Full Court Club and camps.

Wolf came to Ole Miss after serving the previous two seasons at Monmouth as the Director of Women's Basketball Operations in 2017 and 2018. Wolf also served in similar roles at Siena in 2016 and Louisiana in 2015 -- the latter of which put together a 23-12 campaign and won the 2015 WBl title.

Her first position in Division I was as a graduate assistant coach at LIU Brooklyn during the 2013 and 2014 seasons. She also previously served as an assistant coach at Division III programs Centenary (N.J.) College (2011-12) and Middlesex County (N.J.) College (2009-10).

A native of Pine Brook, New Jersey, Wolf graduated with her bachelor's in contemporary art from Ramapo (N.J.) College in 2009, where she was a member of the women's basketball, cross country and track & field teams. Wolf earned her master's in media arts from LIU Brooklyn in 2014.

Zachary Hopp is in his second season with the Rebels and his first as the coordinator of operations - scouting and analytics.

Hopp has spent two seasons as a volunteer assistant basketball coach with Washburn University in Topeka, Kansas. Washburn handed 4-time National Champion Northwest Missouri State, two of their lone three losses over the past one hundred games during his first season. This included a 2021 MIAA Tournament championship. The Ichabods advanced to the NCAA Tournament during both seasons.

From 2018-2020, Hopp served as a women's basketball student manager at the University of Kansas.

He gained even more valuable experience in 2019 working with Athletes in Action as an assistant coach. This allowed him a unique chance to develop overseas basketball knowledge, preparation, practice, and leadership qualities.

Each summer since 2016, Hopp has worked with a team during The Basketball Tournament (TBT) on ESPN, the $2 Million, Winner-Take-All tournament. In 2016 and 2017, he served as the social media coordinator. From 2018-2022, Hopp has served as an assistant coach for Eberlein Drive. In 2021, Hopp coached alongside three NBA experienced coaches Cody Toppert, Matt Brase, and Justin Wetzel. The drive led the entire tournament in PPG at 90.7, FG% at 56.7%, and 3PT% at 52.3%.

Hopp graduated from the University of Kansas in 2021 with a bachelor's degree in sport management and a minor in business.

Assoc. Director of Health and Sports Performance • 10th Season

Troy (2012)

Meredith Pendergast Weaver MS, ATC, began her career as an athletic trainer at Ole Miss in 2012. She currently serves as Associate Director of Health and Sports Performance.

Weaver is responsible for the day-to-day care of the women's basketball team. Her administrative responsibilities include supervision of the Tuohy Athletic Training room staff, oversight of the Sports Nutrition department, and is a member of the Disordered Eating Treatment Team.

She has served as the women's basketball athletic trainer since 2013. As an assistant and graduate assistant athletic trainer at Ole Miss, she worked with volleyball, women's tennis, rifle, and track & field/cross country.

Weaver earned her Bachelor of Science in Athletic Training from Troy University in 2012. Throughout her years as an undergraduate student, she spent her summers employed at Rehab Associates of Wetumpka, AL, and Troy, AL, as well as a first aider for the Varsity Cheerleading and Dance Corporation. Prior to Ole Miss, she gained experience in the Southeastern Conference as an intern at Vanderbilt University, working primarily with the Commodores' football team.

Weaver earned her Master of Science in Nutrition from the University of Mississippi in 2015.

She is a board certified athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainers Association, licensed athletic trainer in the state of Mississippi, CPR/AED certified, and dry needle certified.

A native of Wetumpka, Alabama, Weaver resides in Oxford with her husband, Matt, Australian Shepherd- Griff, and cat- Izzy.

Tevin Shears is in his first year as the manager of creative content with Ole Miss women's basketball, joining the staff in July of 2023.

Shears was the lead content creator this last season for the Huskies, where UConn went on to win the 2023 NCAA Men's National Championship. In Storrs, Shears produced content all across the board from photo, to video and graphic design. Shears also spent time at Dorman High School managing the men's basketball program's social media during, as the Cavaliers went on to win four 5A State Championships in a row.

A Gaffney, S.C. native, Shears graduated from Limestone College in 2017.

Whitehead is in his second season on McPhee-McCuin's staff after joining Ole Miss following a stint as the video coordinator as well as the interim director of men's basketball operations at SIU Edwardsville.

With the Cougars, Whitehead was responsible for all video aspects of the scouting reports as well as live coding games on the bench and creating edits in-game for halftime. His duties even included overseeing all student managers and team social media.

Prior to his role as a video coordinator, Whitehead was a graduate assistant during the 2020-21 season. From 2017-2020, Whitehead worked as the head men's basketball manager. He graduated from SIU Edwardsville in 2020 with a degree in criminal justice and earned his masters' degree in physical education and coaching pedagogy in 2022.

Patton is in her second season with the Rebels after coming to Oxford following a year as a graduate assistant at UCF.

Patton was a member of a historic staff, leading the Golden Knights to a 26-4 season and its first win in NCAA Tournament history. UCF entered the NCAA Tournament on a 13-game winning streak, its longest in program history. As a graduate assistant, Patton was a key piece of day-to-day operations, practices and game planning. She also worked in assisting in recruiting operations and with the program's academic advisors.

Patton also spent time as a physical education teacher and coach for the Rockdale County Public Schools and worked as a gameday operations intern for the Atlanta Dream.

COACHES AND STAFF

Grace Goodhart enters her second season on Yolett McPhee-McCuin's staff for the 2023-24 season as a graduate manager, following a stint as a video coordination intern at UCLA.

Goodhart assisted with video services and scout in her first season in Oxford, while performing other graduate manager duties for the Rebel squad that reached the 2023 Sweet 16.

In Westwood, Goodhart assisted with opponent scouting reports, as well as preparing film and internal Bruin analysis. She completed numerous video projects throughout the season, including preparing player 'positive visualization' films following each game.

As a guard at North Texas from 2017-19, Goodhart started in 33 games her senior season averaging 6.2 points and 1.4 assists per game for the Mean Green. In her freshman season at Loyola Chicago, Goodhart was a standout for the Lady Ramblers, earning a spot on the Missouri Valley Conference All-Freshman Team.

Goodhart graduated from North Texas in 2019 with a degree in kinesiology.

Head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin added Ashton Hopp to her staff for the 2022-23 season as a graduate manager.

A former student manager for the Kansas men's basketball program, Hopp spent two seasons with the Jayhawk program. Hopp helped with all food operations during the 2020-21 season and was solely responsible with dinner operations for the team. She assisted with various other tasks including practices, game day operations as well as equipment and gear. Hopp graduated from KU in 2021 with a degree in sport management and a minor in business

After joining the Rebels in 2022 as a graduate transfer and missing the season due to injury, Brooke Moore joined the women's basketball staff as a graduate manager for the 2023-24 season.

The Atlanta, Georgia, native signed with the Rebels in May of 2022 following two years at Purdue. Appearing in 54 games for the Boilermakers, Moore made 19 starts in her two seasons in West Lafayette. During her senior campaign, she reached double-figures in 16 games, including four 20-point performances. Prior to Purdue, Moore played two seasons on The Plains at Auburn, entering as a five-star recruit out of high school. In 46 games with the Tigers, Moore averaged 6.9 points per game while shooting 27.2 percent from beyond the arc.

Following a season-ending injury last summer, Moore spent time on the Rebel bench developing her basketball knowledge under the tutelage of McPhee-McCuin.

Tim Boeni is in his sixth season as the strength and conditioning coach under Ole Miss head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin for the 2023-24 season.

Boeni served under McPhee-McCuin the previous three years at Jacksonville, where he was part of the program turnaround that included three straight 20-win seasons and an NCAA Tournament berth. At JU, Boeni was also in charge of baseball and men's rowing, and he assisted with the football program.

"Tim was part of our championship run at Jacksonville and was a key part in building the program there," McPhee-McCuin said. "He understands my philosophy and is a vital piece to the puzzle as we build a championship culture here at Ole Miss. The ladies love his energy, and he is able to get the best out of them every day."

Prior to Jacksonville, he served as a volunteer assistant track and field coach at Monmouth University working with jumpers (2011-2013). Before Monmouth, he served as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater, Temple University, working with the sprints and jumps (2010-2011). He has also served as a performance specialist at several private facilities.

During his athletic career at Temple, Boeni was a three-time qualifier for the USA Track & Field Championships, finishing fourth indoors in 2013 in the long jump. He was the 2010 Atlantic 10 Indoor Field Performer of the Year, as well as the 2010 IC4A champion in the long jump — one of the oldest track meets in the United States that exclusively includes schools from the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic. Boeni was a six-time A-10 all-conference honoree, and he set the A-10 outdoor record in the long jump at 25 feet, 2.75 inches. He holds an overall PR of 25 feet, eight inches, and he was also part of Temple's schoolrecord 4x100-meter relay team at 40.42

Boeni holds certifications through NSCA (CSCS), CSCCa (SCCC), NASM (PES and CES), USATF (Level 1), NASE (Speed Specialist Level II) and is a Certified Sprint Specialist through the USTFCCCA.

Boeni received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Temple University in 2010 and earned his master's in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania in 2015.

A native of Brick, New Jersey, he and his wife, Erin, have one daughter, Violet.

Dr. Chartice Wyatt-Thermil joined the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center staff in January 2022. She currently serves as the Assistant Director for Academic Support and works with women's basketball and track & field.

Prior to Ole Miss, Wyatt-Thermil served as the Director of the Kathryn Hughes Seaber Raiders Academic Center for Student-Athletes at Shippensburg University from 2020-21, working with multiple athletic teams. From 2018-2020, she worked as a Student Success Specialist for Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP).

Wyatt-Thermil earned her bachelor's degree in marketing in 2015 from Robert Morris University, master's degree in exercise science (emphasis in sport's studies) in 2016, and doctorate degree in education administration and leadership in 2021 both from IUP. She also completed a certificate in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in the Workplace from the University of South Florida in 2021.

Wyatt-Thermil has been a member of Women Leaders in College Sports since 2017, serves on the Membership Committee and is a 2021 graduate of the Institute for Administration Advancement. She has been a member of the National Association of Academic and Student-Athlete Development Professionals (N4A) and Minority Opportunities Athletics Association (MOAA) since 2017.

Originally from Johnstown, PA, Wyatt-Thermil and her husband Ryan have one son, Rian and a daugther, Amina.

Dr. Jennifer Saxon joined the Ole Miss Athletics department in 2014, currently serving as the Executive Associate Athletics Director and Senior Women's Administrator for the Rebels.

Saxon has also served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for Social Responsibility and Engagement and the Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Enhancement during her time at Ole Miss.

She oversees the social responsibility and engagement division, as well as assumes all oversight of human resources and Title IX coordination.

Saxon and the department of Social Responsibility & Engagement strives to enhance the experience of student-athletes, staff and coaches by cultivating an environment that aligns with the core values of Ole Miss Athletics.

Key areas that Saxon and her division identify, organize and amplify will be: 1) Student-Athlete Enhancement, including career development and personal advancement; and 2) UMity, including community engagement and diversity, equity and inclusion.

While at Ole Miss, Saxon has worked to enhance the department's plan, and create meaningful relationships in the Lafayette, Oxford and University (LOU) communities. She recently spearheaded the establishment of the Ole Miss Training Program, which provides student-athletes with an opportunity to gain valuable professional experience while maintaining their respective athletics schedules. She has also been instrumental in enhancing key relationships on campus that includes the UM Career Center, Fraternal Leadership and Learning and the Center for Inclusion and Cross-Cultural Engagement (CICCE).

Additionally, Saxon serves as the Ole Miss Athletics Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) advisor, while heading life skills programming for nearly 400 student-athletes. The department continues to host a variety of programming that includes Reading with the Rebels, Read Across America Day, Where Do I Go from Here, Majors Symposium, Resume Workshops, Community Connection Week and Financial Literacy workshops.

Saxon joined Ole Miss after a five-year stint at South Carolina State where she served as Senior Women's Administrator and Assistant AD for Athletics Academic Enhancement.Saxon, who has a bachelor of science in physical education/health education services, as well as a master's in counselor education/secondary education from South Carolina State and a doctorate in higher education personnel from the University of Mississippi, brings a wealth of experience in student-athlete development to Ole Miss.

Saxon is a 2013 graduate of the Dr. Charles Whitcomb Leadership Institute and delegate at the 2014 NCAA Convention. She holds memberships in the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) and Women Leaders in Colleges and Sports.

2023-24 PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

Ole Miss asserted itself as a force to be reckoned with during the 2023 NCAA Tournament, upsetting No. 1 Stanford in the second round to reach the program's 11th Sweet 16.

NOT ANOTHER CINDERELLA STORY

Following Ole Miss' first NCAA Tournament appearance in 15 seasons in 2022, head coach Yolett McPhee asserted that a trip to the big dance would not just be the norm but an expectation in Oxford and that the goal wasn't just to make it but to thrive.

Once the Rebels heard their names called on Selection Sunday for the 19th time in program history and the first back-to-back appearance since 2004 & 2005, the team chose to embody that mentality.

Coming off of a 23-8 regular season and a program best 11-5 finish in SEC play to mark a new program record, the fire McPhee-McCuin enstilled in her team became evident during the madness of March en route to the program's sixth 25-win season and 11th Sweet 16 appearance.

ONE GAME AT A TIME

Slotted as a No. 8 seed in the first round against No. 9 Gonzaga, the Rebels faced the task ahead of shutting down the nation's best three-point shooting team all while not letting the looming thought of facing No. 1 Stanford in the second round become a distraction.

There was no distraction from Ole Miss in its first NCAA Tournament victory in 16 seasons in the 71-48 decisive win over Gonzaga. The 23-point win over the Zags tied the largest in program history in a NCAA Tournament game.

Carried by Snudda Collins' hot hands, the Rebels drained a team NCAA game-high seven three-pointers, while proving to be a force off the glass by grabbing 51 rebounds to set another program NCAA record.

The Rebels refused to give up the ball against the Zags, surrendering a season-low eight turnovers to ensure its win and its 11th Second Round appearance.

DON'T BE SHOCKED

Heading into the matchup against No. 1 Stanford, no one seed had failed to reach the Sweet 16 since 2009 placing the Rebels in a position where they thrive best, hunting. Ole Miss jumped on the Cardinal early and feared none, by shutting down one of the nation's best rebounding teams to ensure its 54-49 victory and its 11th appearance in the Sweet 16 for its first since 2007.

In a super team effort, three Rebels finished in double-digits, while shooting at a 45 percent clip from beyond the arc. As a team, Ole Miss swatted away six Cardinal shots in a defensive clinic.

The No. 8 Rebels became the fifth No. 8 seed to reach the regional final as well as handing the Cardinal its first loss before the round of 16 since 2007.

HERE TO MAKE HISTORY

Not only did Ole Miss generate plenty of noise in the postseason, they made a lot of it during the regular season as well en route to the school's sixth 25-win season.

Following a non-conference slate at 11-2, Ole Miss entered 2023 on fire by kicking off SEC play with five consecutive wins. The streak marked the first time that Ole Miss kicked off conference play in 16 seasons.

Not only were the Rebels hot all around, they proved to be extremely dangerous on the road.

It's the first time Ole Miss started 3-0 on the road within the conference and the first time since 1991-92 the Rebels have won three consecutive road games against SEC foes.

The Rebels records proved to be power worthy, but team numbers and individual performances proved to make just as strong of an impact.

ANGEL BAKER SHOT MAKER

One of the most prolific scorers in women's college basketball the last half decade chose to spend her final two seasons in Oxford, with Angel Baker creating a lasting impact on the Rebels.

In her second year at Ole Miss, Baker blossomed under McPhee-McCuin by increasing her scoring over 35% from her first season in a Rebel uniform. Averaging 16.1 points per game in SEC play and 14.8 on the season, Baker became the 15th Rebel to earn First Team All-SEC honors and second in the Coach Yo era.

Baker inked a training camp contract with the WNBA's Chicago Sky prior to beginning her professional career overseas in Poland.

MY OH MADI

The development of Madison Scott since her arrival on campus has been undeniable, with the McDonald's All-American out of Bishop McNamara proving her progress each season.

Year three proved to be the best yet, with the rising senior earning Second Team All-SEC and SEC All-Defensive accolades as a junior. Totaling a team leading 11 double-doubles, Scott was also the Rebels' most efficient shooter with a team leading .510 field goal percentage.

DICTATE AND DISRUPT

A mainstay of McPhee-McCuin's philosophy, the Ole Miss defense has been transformed into one of the top nationally since her arrival in Mississippi. The Rebels held its opponents last season to an average of 56.7 points per game, to finish 24th overall in Division I.

In the SEC, Ole Miss ranked second overall in defense and restricted three SEC opponents to under 50 points to add to a total of eight teams kept under the threshold last season.

In 2022-23, Ole Miss was 22-0 when holding opponents to 60 points or less.

THREE'S? NOT WITH THIS CROWD

A key ingredient to the Rebels' defensive success is the fact that three's are hard to come by in any game against Ole Miss.

In the Coach Yo era, 100 out of 143 opponents have been held to five or fewer.

2022-23

29-34 opponents (85.2%)

WINS THAT JUST MEAN MORE

Starting off on a strong note in SEC play with five consecutive wins proved that Ole Miss was set out for something special in conference play.

The Rebels went on to rattle off 11 wins in the SEC, the third time Ole Miss reached double-digit wins in conference play.

The wins also marked the best record for the Rebels since moving to a 16-game conference format.

COMEBACK KIDS

Facing a 19-point deficit on the road after the half at Arkansas, the Rebels pulled together to accomplish the unthinkable and clawed their way back to force overtime and defeat the Razorbacks, 76-73.

The feat tied the 9th largest margin overcome in NCAA history as well as the largest in Ole Miss history. It also set the third largest margin overcome in an SEC game.

RITA IG-BLOCK-WE

Good luck sneaking past Rita Igbokwe, as the senior has branded herself as one of the toughest defenders in the nation.

Igbokwe currently sits at No. 6 nationally in active career blocks with a total of 206 rejections.

GUESS WHO'S BACK?

In spite of the losses of leaders in Angel Baker and Myah Taylor, the Rebels bring back a strong core of starters in Marquesha Davis, Madison Scott and Tyia Singleton as well as extra depth coming off the bench with Snudda Collins, Elauna Eaton, Rita Igbokwe and Ayanna Thompson.

Senior Madison Scott is back for year four in Oxford, looking to add to her illustrious Rebel career

Ole Miss rolled to its first NCAA Tournament win in 16 seasons over Gonzaga and now holds 20 wins in the Big Dance

PORTAL U

Developing talent is a key component of Coach Yo's vision, with the sixth year coach turning Ole Miss into a hotspot for those looking to grow and for a new home.

Seven Rebels on this season's roster made their way to Ole Miss after hitting the court at a previous school.

McPhee-McCuin hit the portal this offseason once again in search of fresh talent to infuse into the Rebel program, picking up three Power Five transfers, including two of ESPN's Top-15 available.

KK Deans

- Graduate transfer out of Florida, spent three seasons at West Virginia.
- Leading scorer for the Gators in 2022-23 with 14.1 points per game.
- Rated as the No. 14 available transfer by ESPN.
- All-Big 12 Honorable Mention as a junior at WVU.

Kharyssa Richardson

- Transferred from Auburn following her freshman campaign.
- Appeared in 28 games for the Tigers, starting in 27.
- Led AU in rejections with a total of 23 blocks.
- Former AAU teammate with Rita Igbokwe.

Kennedy Todd-Williams

- Joined the Rebels following three seasons at North Carolina.
- Touted as the No. 11 available transfer by ESPN.
- Named Second-Team All-ACC as a junior, ranking second in scoring for the Tar Heels with 13.4 points per game.
- Led Carolina in triples in 2022-23 with a total of 52 makes from beyond the arc.

THE FRESHMEN FIVE

Experience is abundant through the Rebel roster, yet McPhee-McCuin scoured the globe to bring in some of the best talent worldwide with five freshmen joining Ole Miss.

Marija Avlijas

- Ranked as the third best player coming out of Europe by WorldWide Hoops in the class of 2023.
- Represented Serbia at the 2023 U18 Women's European Championship, averaging 20.6 points per game.
- Named the MVP at the 2021 FIBA U16 European Challengers after scoring 25.2

points per game.

Rhema Collins

- Second Bahamian under McPhee-McCuin at Ole Miss, joining Valerie Nesbitt.
- Integral part in The Webb School winning back-to-back Tennessee Division II-A State Championships in 2021 and 2022.
- Played for the Bahamas at the 2019 Centrobasket U17 Women's Championship.

Mariyah Noel

- Three-sport athlete out of Bonner Springs, lettering in volleyball, basketball and track.
- Averaged 23 points and eight rebounds per game as a junior.
- •Two-time Kansas 5A State discus champion.

Zakiya Stephenson

- Led Princess Anne to back-to-back 5A State Championships in 2021 and 2022.
- Ranked as the No. 29 player in Virginia by MaxPreps.
- Rated as a four-star prospect and the No. 88 player in the nation by ESPN's HoopGurlz.

J'Adore Young

- Standout at Greenville, averaging 18.5 points, 13.9 rebounds and 6.7 blocks as a iunior.
- Earned South Carolina All-State accolades in 2021 and 2022.
- Touted as a four-star prospect and the No. 99 player in the country by ESPN's HoopGurlz.

FEB. 26, 2017 - Shandricka Sessom becomes the 28th 1,000-point scorer in Ole Miss history in a 62-49 win over Texas A&M in the season finale. She was the first junior to do so since Valencia McFarland in 2012-13.

MARCH 16, 2017 - Ole Miss earns a spot in the WNIT for the second time in three seasons, falling to Grambling State in the opening round

FEB. 19, 2018 - Madinah Muhammad becomes the 29th Rebel to score 1,000 career points.

APRIL 4, 2018 - Yolett McPhee-McCuin is named the ninth head coach in Ole Miss history, the first black female head coach in program history.

DEC. 8, 2018 - Crystal Allen becomes the 30th Rebel to score 1,000 points.

JAN. 13, 2019 - Ole Miss defeats No. 16 Kentucky in Lexington for the program's first victory in Lexington since 2007 and the first against a ranked opponent on the road since 2011.

MARCH 5, 2019 - Crystal Allen is named Second-Team All-SEC, becoming the first All-SEC Rebel since Tia Faleru in 2014-15.

NOV. 13, 2019 - Ole Miss head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin signs the SEC's No. 1 ranked recruiting class that ranked No. 9 nationally at the time (it eventually fell to No. 13). Included in the initial class were the first McDonald's All-American in Ole Miss meri's or women's basketball history, five-star signee and eventual SEC Freshman of the Year, Madison Scott. She was joined by fellow five-star signee Jacorriah Bracey, eventual SEC All-Freshman member Snudda Collins and Caitlin McGee.

APRIL 16, 2020 - Ole Miss lands ESPN's No. 1 ranked transfer, Shakira Austin of Maryland.

NOV. 30, 2020 - Snudda Collins scores 23 points in her Rebel debut vs. McNeese State, the most ever by an Ole Miss freshman in their debut (in available records).

DEC. 19, 2020 - For the first time in program history, Ole Miss finishes a perfect non-conference schedule after a 64-34 win at George Mason. The Rebels went 6-0 in non-conference action in the shortened 2020-21 season due to the global COVID-19 pandemic.

FEB. 4, 2021 - Ole Miss snaps a six-game skid with a monumental win over No. 14 Kentucky in Oxford, 72-60. The win was its largest over Kentucky since 2001 and biggest over the Wildcats in Oxford since 1997. It would be the first of three ranked wins over the final month for the red-hot Rebels

FEB. 28, 2021 - Ole Miss completes the season sweep of Kentucky for the first time in program history, winning in Lexington over the 17th-ranked Wildcats, 73-69. The win secured a first-round bye in the SEC Tournament for the Rebels, their first since 2016.

MARCH 2, 2021 - Ole Miss earns its most All-SEC honors since 1992 after Shakira Austin was named First-Team All-SEC (first Rebel since Tia Faleru in 2014-15 to make the First-Team), Madison Scott won SEC Freshman of the Year (fourth Rebel to ever win, first since Armintie Price in 2004), and Snudda Collins was named to the SEC All-Freshman team alongside Scott.

MARCH 4, 2021 - Ole Miss knocks off No. 13 Arkansas in the second round of the SEC Tournament, 69-60, securing their first trip to the SEC Quarterfinal since 2010. Shakira Austin's 29 points were the most by a Rebel in the SEC Tournament since 2009.

MARCH 15, 2021 - Ole Miss is selected to play in the Postseason WNIT after narrowly missing out on the NCAA Tournament following a season that saw the Rebels end with a NET of 43 and three top-25 victories. The Rebels would end up playing all five games in nearby Collierville, Tennessee at Collierville High School, as the WNIT moved away from host sites due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. It's the first postseason for Ole Miss since 2016-17, its 25th postseason appearance overall and eighth all-time in the WNIT.

MARCH 28, 2021 - Ole Miss fell in the WNIT title game to Rice, 71-58, ending the furthest postseason run in program history regardless of tournament. The Rebels used a stifling defense and incredible team play to make it to the final, defeating Samford (64-45), Tulane (72-61) and Colorado (65-56) in opening round play before toppling UNI in the WNIT Semifinal, 60-50. Shakira Austin was named WNIT All-Tournament and All-Memphis Regional after averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds.

DEC. 21, 2021 - Ole Miss defeats No. 18 South Florida, 61-53, at the West Palm Beach Invitational, toppling its first ranked nonconference foe since the 2007 season.

JAN. 6, 2022 - In its SEC opener, Ole Miss reaches 13 straight wins for the third-longest winning streak in program history with a 74-56 victory at Florida and it's first SEC opening win since 2017. The Rebels also started off conference road play 1-0 for the first time since 2007.

JAN. 16, 2022 - Ole Miss topples Mississippi State, 86-71, from the SJB Pavilion breaking an eight year drought against the Bulldogs. Ole Miss was unstoppable off the glass, outrebounding MSU by a margin of 20. The feat against the Bulldogs was the largest rebounding margin against an SEC team since January of 2007.

JAN. 23, 2022 - The Rebels knock off No. 23 Kentucky in Lexington, to start 5-1 in SEC play for the program's best conference start in 12 seasons.

JAN. 24, 2022 - Ole Miss jumps in the AP Poll at No. 24, its first ranking since 2007.

Shakira Austin poses with WNBA Commissioner Cathy Engelbert after being selected third overall by the Washington Mystics at the 2022 WNBA Draft. Austin tied Armintie Price as the highest draft pick in Ole Miss history, with Price drafted at No. 3 by the Chicago Sky in 2007.

FEB. 3, 2022 - In a dominating 67-41 win over Missouri in Columbia, Ole Miss allowed its fewest points in an SEC road contest since 1991 while also holding the Tigers scoreless from three for the only time in 14 seasons.

FEB. 20, 2022 - For the 20th time in program history, Ole Miss reached 20 wins in a season and its first win in Nashville since 1987 with a 57-47 triumph over Vanderbilt.

FEB. 22, 2022 - Shakira Austin shatters an SJB Pavilion record, grabbing a season-high 16 rebounds against Arkansas in the 70-62 win over the Hogs.

FEB. 24, 2022 - Ole Miss rolls over Auburn on The Plains, 72-52 to reach 10 wins in SEC play for the second time in the history of the MARCH 4, 2022 - In the SEC Tournament Quarterfinals, Ole Miss withstood a pesky Florida squad 70-60 to advance to its first SEC Tournament Semifinal since 1993.

MARCH 13, 2022 - Ole Miss receives an at-large bid for the 2022 NCAA Tournament as a No. 7 seed in the Wichita Region, for the program's 18th tournament appearance.

APRIL 11, 2022 - With the third overall pick in the 2022 WNBA Draft, the Washington Mystics select Shakira Austin. Austin ties Armintie Price as the highest draft pick in the history of Ole Miss women's basketball.

NOV. 28, 2022 - The Rebels set a program record with the fewest points allowed in a game, racing past Alabama A&M, 74-28 from the Pavilion. The 28 points surpassed the previous record of 30 against Mississippi Valley State in 2016.

JAN. 1, 2023 - Ole Miss rings in the New Year with a 61-50 win at Mississippi State for the school's first win in Starkville since 2007, as Angel Baker carried the Rebels with 22 points and 10 rebounds.

JAN. 12, 2023 - The Rebels head on the road to Athens and pick up their second win and first on Georgia's home court since 2010, 66-58. Ole Miss remained hot in its SEC start, moving to 5-0 and 3-0 on the road in conference play for the longest streak since 1992.

JAN. 29, 2023 - Facing a deficit of 39-20 on the road at Arkansas, the Rebels stuck together to take the Razorbacks to overtime and come out with the victory, 76-73. The 19-point comeback to win set the program best, ranked third in games between SEC schools and ninth largest in Division I history.

FEB. 23, 2023 - Coming together to piece a 72-64 win over Missouri on Senior Night, the Rebels earned its 10th SEC win of the year as for the first time in program history the team reached double-digit conference wins in consecutive seasons.

FEB. 26, 2023 - Trailing by seven heading into the final quarter at Alabama, Ole Miss refused to give up the fight to come back and defeat the Crimson Tide, 57-55 to secure a fourth place finish in SEC play. Reaching 11 wins in conference play, tied a program best.

MARCH 12, 2023 - On Selection Sunday, Ole Miss heard its name called for the 19th time as the Rebels earned an at-large bid the 2023 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. The Rebels found themselves as an eight seed set out to face off against No. 9 Gonzaga in Stanford, California.

MARCH 17, 2023 - The team's motto of "We Defend" was on full display in Ole Miss' 71-48 thrashing of Gonzaga in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament for its first tournament win since 2007. Ole Miss shattered multiple marks in program NCAA single-game tournament records, limiting the Zags to a low of 48 points, while lighting it up from beyond the arc with a record seven three's. The 23-point win, tied the largest by Ole Miss in an NCAA Tournament game as well.

MARCH 19, 2023 - From the jump Ole Miss came to play against No. 1 Stanford in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament, engineering a win of the ages in toppling the Cardinal, 54-49. The victory propelled Ole Miss to its 11th Sweet Sixteen, as the Rebels became the fifth eight seed to reach the regional semifinal. The Rebels were the first to knock off a one-seed prior to the Sweet 16 in 14 seasons.

The Rebels have had a storied history in their 48-year existence, and a part of that history has been Ole Miss' success in the NCAA Tournament.

Ole Miss has played in 19 NCAA Tournaments. In their 19 tournament appearances, the Rebels have advanced to five regional championship games (Elite Eight) and 11 regional semifinals (Sweet Sixteen) and compiled a total of 20 NCAA Tournament victories.

The 2006-07 Rebels put together one of the most thrilling runs of the NCAA Tournament on their way to the 2007 Elite Eight. Along the way, Ole Miss upended TCU, defending NCAA Champion Maryland and Big 12 champion Oklahoma to claim its fifth berth in the Elite Eight. The Rebels would ultimately fall to eventual national champion Tennessee in the Dayton Region finals.

In addition, six Rebels have been named to All-NCAA Regional teams, including Jennifer Gillom, who was named the Midwest Regional MVP in 1986.
